- Today we started the morning with a bit of running because we took the bus and it left us in Brighton and from there, we ran to the station to go with the train to London. When we arrived in London, we saw the red buses , the taxis, the cabins and I have felt very happy I have been able to see the Buckingham Palace and the Big Ben is under construction the London Eye, etc. It has been very cool! After, we have returned from London and already in Brighton, we have gone to dinner at KFC. And when we came home we had to change and take a bus and then another because we had confused the truth is that today has been the most special day and it has been an unforgettable experience. Tomorrow will be a bit boring but good day it's another day.

- We have gotten up very well, we have left the key of the house on the entrance table and the father of the family has taken us to the school above where we have left our luggage. Afterwards we had organized an excursion, but as it was raining and It was very windy, some decided not to go and spend the day in the center of Brighton, but then, we went back to school to get our luggage to go to the airport and on the plane while I write this I mean that this trip has been an unforgettable experience I would definitely repeat it again.
